

Groups of 8 or more Visiting Columbia Springs

Columbia Springs and Vancouver Trout Hatchery staff reserve the right to ask groups to leave if they are not following these expectations.

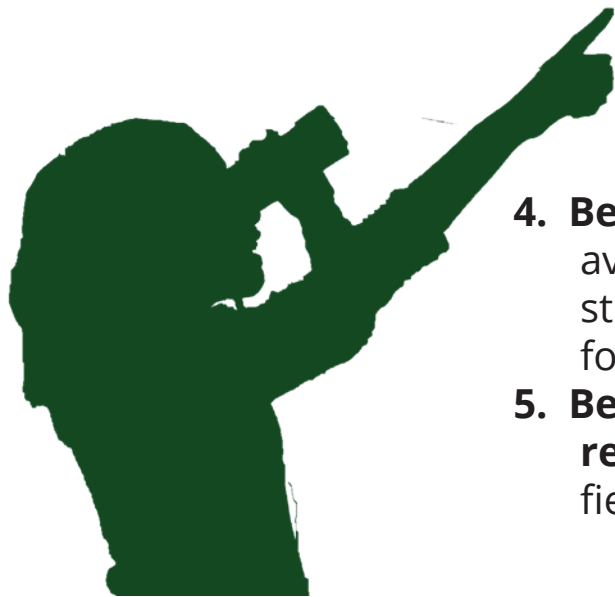

Columbia Springs is an active hatchery, education center and home to many plants and animals. Please be respectful during your visit and observe the following expectations:

1. Let us know you're coming!

Call or e-mail our Education Coordinator at:

360-882-0936 ext. 226 | schoolprograms@columbiasprings.org

2. Stay on the marked trails (map near parking lot) and do not enter hatchery work areas

3. Do not feed wildlife

4. Be respectful near hatchery ponds;

avoid running, loud noises and ensure no rocks, sticks or food enter hatchery ponds (except fish food at fish feeding pond)

5. Be aware that some areas of the site may be reserved for Columbia Springs programs, like field trips or summer camps

Thank you for your cooperation and enjoy your visit!

Columbia Springs is a non-profit natural area providing educational programming. We rely on community support to continue to provide these services. Please consider making a financial contribution at www.columbiasprings.org.
